

2022 USADGC Qualifying Process

The following explains the Qualifying Process for the PDGA United States Amateur Championship presented by Discraft.

- The top PDGA Amateur players with a rating of 950+ per the PDGA March update.
- The top PDGA Amateur players with a rating of 930+ per the PDGA April update.
- The top 35% of the MA1 division from All MDGO Feature Events including the Discraft Michigan State Championships (see Sheet 2) after May 1st

NOTE: PDGA Player Rating Updates are published on the second Tuesday of every month.

REGISTRATION NOTES:

All players must be a current Amateur PDGA Member and a PDGA Certified Official through the end of the USADGC tournament to be able to register.

Be sure to check your membership and official's status before attempting to register.

Please refer to USADGC.com or the tournament page on DiscGolfScene.com for up-to-date information including invitation and registration dates.

Your invite will be sent to the email address associated with your PDGA membership.

If the event is full before you receive your invitation, please register as soon as possible on the waitlist. If you do not register for the waitlist, you have no opportunity to participate.

Qualifications are per calendar year and do not carry over from one year to the next.

*PLEASE NOTE:

Due to the commitment required to participate in the USADGC, some Feature Events (FE) may have to be deferred to the following calendar year USADGC. We will do our best to monitor the registration and waitlist to determine an appropriate cutoff date when qualified players from a scheduled FE will be included in this years' event. If a FE gets bumped, the qualified players will be added to the following years' FE invites.
